Dear Dean Cole:

We, the staff of Smith Middle School's The Cyclone Scoop, want to thank you for supporting our efforts during the past year. Absorbing the printing costs for multiple issues was more than generous. No other person, organization or institution has acknowledged our publication and work yet alone provided any assistance.

We also want to praise Chris Roush. He has been the adviser "extraordinaire." Selflessly, he has met with our classes at least once per week to instruct us and help us revise and edit our paper. We had only to attach our paper to an e-mail, and he would download, print, and bring it back to the school for distribution. No parent or community mentor has ever done more. He truly represents all that journalistic commitment should. He is an asset to the university, the community, and our school.

Sincerely,

Leah Quake
